

Addressing an FOA

Kathy Mann Koepke, PhD
NINR

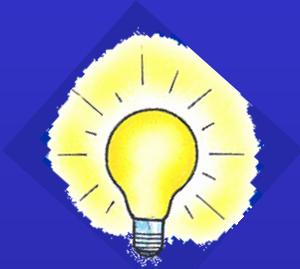

CFS Grantsmanship Workshop
September 17, 2007
Rockville, MD

Find a Funding Opportunity Announcement (FOA)

<http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide>

Carefully Read the Objectives of the FOA

Identify the Institute that Matches Your Ideas

Of the Institutes that are signed on to the FOA, I think NINR is the best match...

NINR Mission: to promote and improve the health of individuals, ...

Contact the Program Officer

Hi Kathy! I've got this great idea for a study... would NINR be interested in this science?

Scientific Contact:
Kathy Mann
Koepke, PhD
(301) 496-9623

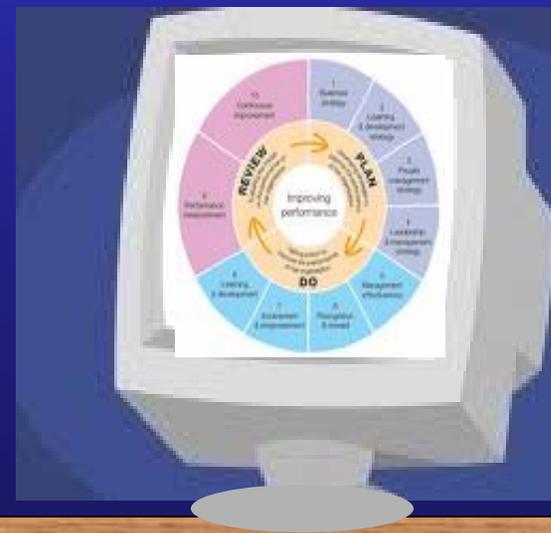

Develop Your Original Questions & Hypotheses

<http://crisp.cit.nih.gov/>

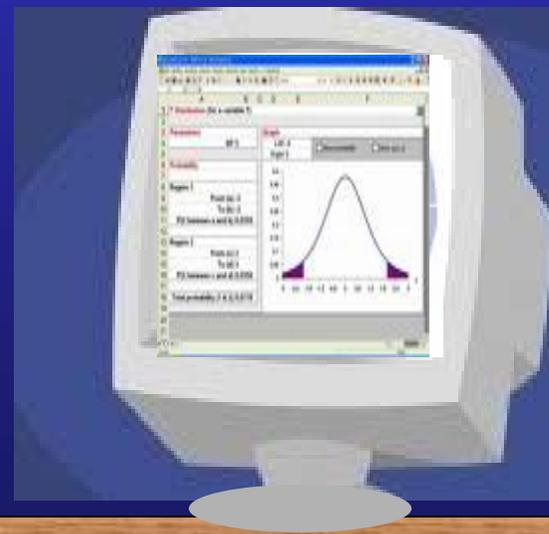

Refine Your Proposal Concept

I'll start with mice and move to humans...

Remember to Plan Your Analysis

I think I've got it!

Writing Tips

- Start early!
- Be very, very clear.
- Don't use jargon.
- Check for typos and misspellings.
- Spell out acronyms with 1st use.

Writing Tips

- Start early!
- Be very, very clear.
- Don't use jargon.
- Check for typos and misspellings.
- Spell out acronyms with 1st use.

Writing Tips

Question /Aims	Variable	Measure	Analysis
Does drug X reduce fatigue	Fatigue	Non-refreshing sleep	MANOVA
Does drug X improve QOL	QOL	SF34

Contact the Program Officer (again!)

Me again! Here's my developed plan...

Scientific Contact:
Kathy Mann
Koepke, PhD
(301) 496-9623

Download Application Form & Begin Writing

Aim 1: To test efficacy of an intervention to...

Share Your Application with a Colleague ...

Get Feedback

Looks good! I didn't see any problems...

Submit Your Application Electronically

This is going really quickly!

PI: Doe, J
Title: Best
Study Ever

...->>..

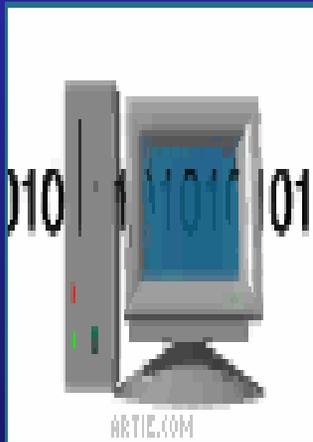

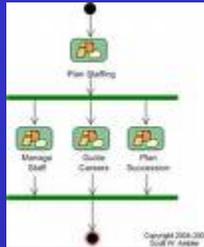

Await Receipt of Application from NIH

Thank you! and Good Luck!

Review