

9TH ANNUAL VIVIAN W. PINN SYMPOSIUM

Advancing Data-Driven Innovation for the Health of Women

May 15, 2025, 12 - 4 p.m. EDT | Virtual-Only Event

Join the NIH Office of Research on Women's Health (ORWH) for the 9th Annual Vivian W. Pinn Symposium

Hosted by ORWH each year during National Women's Health Week, this event honors the first full-time director of the office, Vivian W. Pinn, M.D.

This year's symposium, "Advancing Data-Driven Innovation for the Health of Women," focuses on how data science skills, resources, and training can build capacity for interdisciplinary data analyses.

Featuring a special presentation titled "Advancing Data Innovations for Health Improvements: Possibilities and Pitfalls" by our Capstone Speaker

Raquel Hill, Ph.D.

Chair of Computer and Information Sciences and Professor, Spelman College
