

6TH ANNUAL VIVIAN W. PINN SYMPOSIUM

The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on the Careers of Women Scientists

May 12, 2022 • 2 p.m. – 5 p.m. EDT

Virtual-Only Event

Join the NIH Office of Research on Women's Health (ORWH) for the 6th Annual Vivian W. Pinn Symposium. Hosted by ORWH each year during National Women's Health Week, this event honors the first full-time Director of the office, Dr. Vivian W. Pinn.

In line with ORWH's mission to put science to work for the health of women, this event serves as a critical forum for experts across sectors to communicate and collaborate for the advancement of women's health.

This year's event titled "The Impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic on the Careers of Women Scientists" will explore:

- The nature and causes of gender inequity in academic medicine, how the pandemic has exacerbated these challenges, and how the pandemic can provide a disruptive opportunity to implement interventions to promote equity in a "new normal."
- Lessons learned in the recent past, such as interventions to cope with increased family caregiving demands.
